

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Carmel, Indiana

August 7, 2006

Attorney Catherine Michael to Appear on Fox 59 News

Catherine Michael of Carmel-based law firm Hollingsworth Jocham & Zivitz, LLC will appear Tuesday, August 8, 2006 at 7:45 a.m. (local time) on Fox 59 news, where she will be discussing back to school issues for parents who have children with learning disabilities and/or special education and/or health needs.

Ms. Michael's practice is focused on education law and representation of parents throughout the state of Indiana and nationwide through local counsel. She has extensive experience with special education and Section 504 Hearings under state and federal law, arbitration hearings, teacher and student discipline and dismissal matters, ADA and other civil rights matters. Ms. Michael is a nationwide author and speaker, who conducts numerous presentations and training programs for parents, schools and education organizations across the nation.

Hollingsworth Jocham & Zivitz, LLC is a full-service family law team, offering a compassionate approach to family law, matters combining effective client advocacy with patience, empathy and understanding. Their legal services are also available in Spanish.

For more information, please contact Hollingsworth Jocham & Zivitz, LLC at 317.824.9000 or www.hjzlaw.com.