Carmel Attorney Kena Hollingsworth Appointed to People's Burn Foundation Board

CARMEL, IN – DECEMBER 18, 2007 – Kena S. Hollingsworth, J.D., a founding partner of Hollingsworth Jocham & Zivitz, PC, has been appointed to the board of People's Burn Foundation. Since her grandfather was badly burned in a fire, she has been active with People's Burn Foundation, serving as co-chair of the fundraising and marketing committee for the last year. People's Burn Foundation raises awareness about the tragedies cause by fire. The mission of PBF is to provide advocacy services to burn survivors and their loved ones, and to educate our youth and communities with effective burn prevention programs. For more information about PBF, please visit <http://www.peoplesburnfoundation.org/>.

Very active in the legal community, Ms. Hollingsworth is a member of the Hamilton County, Boone County, Indianapolis, Indiana and American Bar Associations and their family law sections. She is also a member of the executive committee of the family law section of the Indianapolis Bar Association and she serves as the Boone County Bar Association's delegate to the Indiana State Bar Association's Board of Governors. She has a BV® Peer Review Rating from Martindale-Hubbell, which is an excellent rating and the maximum rating a lawyer can receive who has been admitted to the bar from five to nine years. Ms. Hollingsworth is a participant of Indianapolis Bar Association's Bar Leader Series V. She is also a member of the Indianapolis Bar Association's Women in Law and Young Lawyers Divisions, the National Association of Women Lawyers, the Indiana University School of Law at Indianapolis Alumni Association and the University of Southern Indiana Alumni Association. Ms. Hollingsworth also serves as a volunteer for Ask a Lawyer in Indianapolis and is a frequent author of and speaker on topics of interest in family law.

In addition to her legal commitments, Ms. Hollingsworth is actively involved in the community. In addition to her work with PBF, she is a 2006 graduate of the FBI Citizens' Academy and currently serves on the board of directors of the FBI Citizens' Academy. Additionally, Ms. Hollingsworth is on the advisory board of The Salvation Army, serving on the social services council. She is a volunteer with Dress for Success—Indianapolis which promotes the economic independence of disadvantaged women by providing professional attire, a network of support and career development tools to help women thrive in work and in life. Ms. Hollingsworth is also a member of Young Professionals of Central Indiana and the Indianapolis chapter of InfraGard.

In 2007, Ms Hollingsworth has been recognized for her dedication to her community. Earlier this year she was named a top 10 finalist for “Indy’s Best and Brightest” for her civic engagement and remarkable achievements in her workplace and in the legal community. Most recently she received the “Colts Community Quarterback Award,” recognizing Colts season ticket holders who have demonstrated outstanding service to their community through volunteerism.
