KENA S. HOLLINGSWORTH SPEAKS ON HOT TOPICS I: PERSPECTIVES FROM THE BAR

CARMEL, IN – JUNE 20, 2008 – Kena S. Hollingsworth, J.D., a founding partner of Hollingsworth Cassman & Zivitz, PC, will speak today at The Bench Bar about social networking sites and their effects on litigation.

Ms. Hollingsworth graduated with honors from the University of Southern Indiana, where she received her Bachelor of Arts degree in English and Spanish with a concentration and certification in International Business. She received her Juris Doctor from the Indiana University School of Law – Indianapolis.

Very active in the legal community, Ms. Hollingsworth is a member of the Hamilton County, Boone County, Indianapolis, Indiana and American Bar Associations and their family law sections. She is a member of the executive committee of the family law section of the Indianapolis Bar Association and is the Boone County Bar Association delegate to the Indiana State Bar Association's Board of Governors. She has a BV® Peer Review Rating from Martindale-Hubbell, which is an excellent rating and the maximum rating a lawyer can receive who has been admitted to the bar from five to nine years. Ms. Hollingsworth participated in the Indianapolis Bar Association Bar Leader Series V (2007-2008). She is also a member of the Indianapolis Bar Association's Women in Law and Young Lawyers Divisions, the National Association of Women Lawyers, the Indiana University School of Law at Indianapolis Alumni Association and the University of Southern Indiana Alumni Association. Ms. Hollingsworth also serves as a volunteer for Ask a Lawyer in Indianapolis, Legal Lines and Kids' Voice.

In addition to her commitment to the legal community, Ms. Hollingsworth is actively involved in Central Indiana's community. She is a 2006 graduate of the FBI Citizens' Academy and currently serves on the board of directors of the FBI Citizens' Academy. Additionally, Ms. Hollingsworth is on the advisory board of The Salvation Army, serving on the social services council. She is actively involved with the People's Burn Foundation. As a board member and chair of the Fundraising Committee, she promotes PBF's mission of raising awareness about the tragedies caused by fire by providing services to burn victims and their loved-ones and educating youth and communities on effective burn prevention. Ms. Hollingsworth is a volunteer with Dress for Success Indianapolis which promotes the economic independence of disadvantaged women by providing professional attire, a network of support and career development tools to help women thrive in work and in life. She is also a member of Young Professionals of Central Indiana and the Indianapolis chapter of InfraGard.

Earlier this year, Ms. Hollingsworth was recognized as a “Forty Under Forty” by the Indianapolis Business Journal. In 2007, Ms Hollingsworth was named a top 10 finalist for “Indy’s Best and Brightest,” and received the “Colts Community Quarterback Award,” recognizing Colts season ticket holders who have demonstrated outstanding service to their community through volunteerism.
