

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – September, 2010

REBECCA GEYER TO SPEAK AT SEMINAR ON ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS IN CHARITABLE GIFT GIVING

On November 18, 2010, Rebecca Geyer, attorney at Hollingsworth & Zivitz, P.C., will present on behalf of Happy Hollow Children's Camp at Barnes & Thornburg. The full-day seminar will focus on tax aspects of charitable giving. For additional information on this seminar or to register for the event, please call Jennifer Dant at Happy Hollow's Indianapolis office at 317.638.3849 or email her at jdant@happyhollow.camp.net. For additional information on Rebecca Geyer please visit her bio at <http://www.hzlegal.com/our-team/Rebecca-W-Geyer/>.

Rebecca will discuss ethical considerations in charitable gift planning. Rebecca's presentation includes topics such as avoiding client conflicts, the representation of multiple clients, the estimation of attorney fees, charges and determining how legal fees will be paid. Additional presentation topics include: general rules for charitable deductions and substantiating donations, bargain-sale rule for real estate donations, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, charitable lead trusts, and wealth replacement trusts.

Happy Hollow Children's Camp, Inc. is the organization sponsoring this event. Happy Hollow is a non-profit corporation established in 1951. The organization provides summer camp opportunities to economically disadvantaged children from Marion County and surrounding areas. The proceeds of the seminar will benefit Happy Hollow.

Hollingsworth & Zivitz, PC is a full-service family law team, offering a compassionate and resolution focused approach to all divorce and family law issues, combining effective client advocacy with patience, empathy and understanding.

For more information, please contact 317.569.2200 or visit www.hzlegal.com.